

L-4 LEE CHAPEL, WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY, LEXINGTON, VA.

L-7112

THE LEE MEMORIAL CHAPEL, located on the campus of the Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., is becoming a second Mt. Vernon, visited by ever-increasing throngs of tourists. It contains the office of General Robert E. Lee as he left it, also the family tomb of the Lees from Revolutionary times, and the recumbent statue of General Lee by Valentine, one of the most impressive and sublime of all the world's memorial marbles.
